SHORTCUT FILM FESTIVAL

The unique world of film shooting brings real cooperation, relaxation and lots of fun to the life of the team.Filmmaking, experiencing the excitement of preparation and shooting, delivering a messag

In the smaller crews, each participant will find a role that excites them, whether they are a director, scriptwriter or prop master. We will of course also provide teams with technical support and other inspirational props.

The teams will be able to choose the style of their short film, develop the roles, look for locations and collect additional equipment.

After the screening of the "film gala" in the evening, a collective vote will be held to reward the outstanding works and performances.

Duration: half day

Participants: up to 200 people
